VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.,

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of school ership, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Monday Evening, Sept. 17, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS. NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

County Meeting.

We are requested to suggest that a meeting of the conservative citizens of Wake, who support the policy of President Johnson, and are favorable to the re-election of Gov. Worth, be held at the Court House, in this city, on Saturday, the 22nd. inst., for the purpose of nominating candidates to represent this County in the next Legislature, and of consulting together upon the condition of the country.

It is very desirable that the conservatives in each Captain's district take steps to be represented upon the occasion.

Treason and Traitors.

All the people of the South have been charged with being traitors, because of the late revolt. The Executive clemency has been extended to the masses, and to all except those who remain unpardoned under the fourteen excepted classes. Thousands upon thousands of those included in the general amnesty could not have been convicted of the crime of treason before the Courts, nor are we aware that any one, up to this day, has been convicted of that crime.—Many, learned in the law, believe that no such conviction could take place, under the Constitution and laws enacted before the late revolt. The question is one for the Courts, and, according to the Constitution, no one is liable to be punished in any way, until such conviction takes place.

No instance can be produced in which a single individual thus pardoned, or a single individual yet unpardoned, has violated in the slightest degree his amnesty oath. No such individual, that we know of, entertains any hostile feeling towards the Constitution or government of the United States, or has ever uttered a sentiment disloyal to the Government. Opinions adverse to the views entertained by officers of the Government—sentiments counter to those of a majority of Congress, have been expressed, which right is accorded to any one, but no disloyal sentiment to the government has at any time been expressed. The masses of the Southern people, without exception, accept the Constitution as it is, and swear to observe and sustain it, and are ready to support and defend the government against all attacks from any quarter, in the exercise of its Constitutional power. And yet the self-styled Union men of the South—those holding radical sentiments and endorsing the Radical programme, have not ceased to denounce the supporters of the President's policy, and of the Constitution as it is, as traitors.

Now, if the supporters of the Constitution as it is are traitors, what must we call those who support the Radical party and the changes that they propose to make in the Constitution, which obliterate the reserved rights of the States, change the representation of the Congress to effect a partizan purpose and to force upon the South universal negro suffrage, punish and degrade the people of the South without form of trial, set aside entirely the pardoning power of the President, and give to Congress the right to say who shall fill all offices in the States as well as under the Federal Government,—thus changing the form of Republican government guaranteed to the States by the Federal Constitution, making it no longer a Federal Government of the States, but a consolidated Government under the control of Congress? We have said that all who favor these Radical views are traitors to the Government of our fathers and to the Constitution as it is. Is the expression too harsh? If any one can furnish a word which better expresses their true position, we will use it. If we are capable of understanding the meaning of the language, the proposed Constitutional amendment, known as the Howard amendment, is hostile to the Constitution as it is, and violates utterly the principles and pledges upon which the Federal government of our fathers was constructed.

THE INDIANAPOLIS Herald publishes a list of prominent citizens, office-holders and others, who were engaged in the recent disgraceful riot in that city, by which the President was prevented from speaking. It boldly charges that the riot was incited in order to cover the assassination of Mr. Johnson. One pistol-shot, evidently aimed at him, struck within a few feet of his head. The evidence of a youth is given to the effect that he was paid $5 to hurl a large stone at the President, and further proof is adduced that desperate characters were brought from other places to engage in the riot. Threats were openly made, for several days before the visit of the President, that he should not leave Indianapolis alive. Such are the legitimate fruits of Ralicalism.

ROWAN CO.—The Old North State says that the canvass for the Legislature in Rowan has commenced. The only candidates for the Commons thus far are Dr. I. W. Jones, Capt. Wm. H. Crawford and John K. Graham, Esq. R. F Johnson, of Davie County, is a candidate for the Senate from the District composed of the counties of Rowan and Davie. F. E. Shober, Esq., is also understood to be a candidate for the Senate. Upon the great political issues of the day, these gentlemen all agree. They are all for Gov. Worth, and all sustain the policy of President Johnson.

IMPEACHMENT OF THE PRESIDENT.—A Boston correspondent of the National Intelligencer writes:

"I have learned here that Mr. Boutwell, who is good authority on this point, has given assurances that articles of impeachment will be offered, and carried by the House at the next session."

ALL THE EXECUTIVE PROCLAMATIONS, all the Congressional manifestos, and all the public utterances of the press and the politicians of the North, during the late struggle, declared the restoration of the Union, and the re establishment of the national authority over the revolutionary States, to be the sole and exclusive object of the war. Congress, particularly, from time to time, declared, under all the solemnity of formal and emphatic protest, that the government was actuated by no feeling of vindictiveness in the prosecution of the war, and that the moment the foregoing results were accomplished, all acts of hostility, of whatever character, towards the South should terminate at once.

No one can deny that the national authority has been fully restored over these States. The flag of the Union floats from the dome of every Capitol; the government has its agents and officers in every district, absorbing the hard earnings of the people in the collection of taxes for the payment of the national burdens. The various Legislatures have complied with the most humiliating requirements at the hands of the Government, and even Congress itself, while denying that the States are in the Union, has stultified itself by submitting to them the ratification of amendments to the Constitution,—in itself the highest privilege of a State within the Union.

The Radical leaders and party have violated every pledge that they made. The war has ended in results which even they, in their wildest expectations, hardly hoped for. Slavery has been abolished, and our people are impoverished and suffering to an extent sufficient, one would suppose, to satisfy the most malignant spirit.—For this latter condition of things they have no sympathy. They seek fresh occasions of prostration and ruin. In order to gratify that worst and lowest of all human instincts,—exultation over a prostrate former enemy,—they would take away from us every privilege and right guaranteed by our Republican constitution. They, and those who sympathise with them, are thus the practical disunionists of the day. With their aiders and abettors in the South this is a perfectly natural relation. Nine out of every ten of them have been life-long disunionists, and for years before the final struggle strove to bring it on and to break up and destroy the government.

When the vengeance of these men shall have been fully glutted,—when the South shall lie at their feet a mutilated, mangled and almost lifeless shape,—when every instinct of manhood shall have been crushed out by the most degrading impositions,—when her best citizens shall have been disfranchised and the negro elevated above the head of the white man,—when every reserved right of the States shall have been absorbed and swallowed up by a huge central despotism,—then the poor privilege may be accorded us of being called members of the Federal Union! What sort of Union that would be it needs no prophet's ken to foreshadow. It would be the union of the captive chained to the chariot-wheels of the conqueror,—the union of Poland with Russia,—the union of Hungary with Austria. That which alone can constitute the basis of cordial and enduring Union,—mutual attachment, confidence and interest,—would have no existence. An enforced Union, with all the privileges, benefits and blessings of government on the one side, and all of the humiliation, suffering and oppression, on the other, would be a parody on government, at which idiots might laugh,—it would be, indeed, a moral mockery over which angels might weep.

The people of the South yearn for a restoration of Union on its proper and true foundations. They long to forget the asperities of the war, and to atone for the error, or misfortune, or whatever else it may be called, of the past, by vigorous and earnest efforts to build up the national name and fame in the future. They have exhibited qualities, in the last five years of trial, that eminently fit them for so glorious a work. Heart and hand, if encouraged and welcomed, they will enter upon the task. If they shall continue to be spurned, scorned and degraded, upon their shoulders will not rest the reproach of disappointing the hopes of the friends of Republican liberty the world over!

The President's Tour---Ingrates in Office.

The most interesting, as well as the most general topic of conversation in official circles here is the tour of the President. The demonstrations of applause which have greeted him in most places delight and encourage his friends, while his enemies confidently predict, from the manifestations of hostility and disrespect shown him at a few points, a rejection of his policy by the people, and that he will be impeached and ignominiously dismissed from office by the next Congress. It is a lamentable fact that among the latter class may be included the head of at least one department, and the heads of several bureaus, three-fourths of whose clerks and employes would, if there were to be a Presidential contest to-morrow between Mr. Johnson and Thad Stevens, work and vote for the latter. In one department the spectacle is almost daily presented after business hours, and sometimes during business hours, of a bevy of clerks witnessing with delight one of their number repeat and burlesque the speeches delivered by him on his tour, in reply to addresses of welcome; and these parties I know are actuated by the spirit and sentiments of their immediate patrons, one of whom has beheld their disgraceful conduct on more than one occasion, and, instead of rebuking it, encouraged them with a hearty roar of laughter. The heads of some of these ingrates will probably be included among those the President has promised to cut off.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

The most exciting game of base ball ever witnessed in Hoboken came off on Thursday between the Atlantic Club, of Brooklyn, and the Mutual Club, of New York. It was the first of championship games, and was won by the Atlantic by a score of 17 to 15. From 10,000 to 15,000 spectators were present.

It is a significant fact that all the "fighting generals" are supporters of the government, while most of the "spouting generals" are now opposing the government. Among the former are Grant, Sherman, Meade, Sheridan, Custer, Steedman, Stoneman, and many others; among the latter are Ben. Butler, Banks, Schenck, Schurz and some others.

Public Meeting.

One of the largest meetings we have ever seen assembled in this town, met at the Court House on Tuesday, at noon, and organized by calling A. Little, Esq., to the Chair, and appointing Col. Jos. White, Secretary.

After a statement from the Chair of the object of the meeting, on motion, Hon. T. S. Ashe, one of the delegates from the Third District to the recent National Union Convention held in Philadelphia, who was present, was requested to give to the meeting an account of his trip to Philadelphia, history of the Convention, and his views on matters in general.

Mr. Ashe took the stand, and for about an hour fixed the attention of the audience with an interesting speech. We have not room or the opportunity to follow him in his remarks, but will give only the principal points touched upon by him.

After adverting to his appointment by the District Convention as a delegate, he stated that he accepted the office with some reluctance, anticipating that if he attended the Convention his intercourse with Northern citizens might be anything but pleasant. But he was happy to say, that as soon as he came in contact with citizens from all parts of the country—the North and Northwest especially—he had been most agreeably disappointed. Not one unpleasant word or expression did he hear the whole time he was in Philadelphia, from delegates or citizens, and although the Convention Hall, inside and out, was literally crowded, he never saw a more orderly crowd in his life. He had met at the Convention men from the North and Northwest who were more denunciatory of the Radicals and their policy than the most extreme Southerner.

With these preliminary remarks he took up the Declaration of Principles and reviewed them seriatim. Before doing so, he stated that the resolutions had been adopted altogether by the Convention by acclamation, and were not voted upon separately as many seemed to suppose. During his review and clear exposition of them the audience evinced their appreciation of them by applauding. In commenting upon the expression "loyal" in the fourth resolution of the Declaration, he claimed every man as loyal, notwithstanding what his antecedents may have been, who had taken the oath of allegiance and who supported the Constitution of the United States in good faith. As to the ninth resolution, to which some exception has been taken in the South, he said he could not see how, under the circumstances, the Convention could have done otherwise than have adopted something of the kind. It was simply a declaration of the duty of the government to its soldiery,—the duty which every government owes to its soldiery. After reviewing the resolutions, he took up the proposed Howard amendment to the Federal Constitution, and commented severely upon it. He warned his fellow-citizens against giving it any countenance or support, and to jealously guard against every attempt to adopt it by the Legislature, by sending only such men to the Assembly whose views are well known on that subject.

Mr. Ashe was listened to with almost breathless attention by the large audience present, and was often interrupted by applause.

At the conclusion of his remarks, Mr. J. R. Hargrave offered the following resolutions, which, upon being seconded, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we approve of the proceedings of the late National Union and Constitutional Convention, at Philadelphia, because we find therein a full and clear recognition of the Constitutional rights of the Southern States in their relations to the Federal Union.

Resolved, That we approve and endorse the policy now being pursued by Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, and will sustain the same.

Resolved, That we will discountenance any schemes that may be designed or may tend to thwart the present plans of the Federal administration in its efforts to restore the Union as it was before the late attempt to secede.

Before adjourning the proceedings were authorized to be published. We have taken the official copy and eliminated as above.

As a ratification meeting, we look upon this as one of the largest and most successful that has ever been held in this county. But little time was allowed to give notice, the thing being sprung after the Court began its morning session, and yet as soon as proclamation was made the Court House filled to overflowing.—Wadesboro' Argus.

Brownlow in Boston.

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—The "Southern Loyalists" from the Philadelphia Convention had a reception this evening.

Horace Maynard advocated the perpetual exclusion from political power of all who voluntarily participated in the rebellion.

Governor Brownlow spoke of a Convention of rebels and copperheads that is to meet at Nashville to overthrow the State Government. He had notified Seward of this Convention, but he had replied in a sneering and contemptuous letter, which the speaker would shortly publish to the world. However, he would call an extra session of his Legislature, and would meet that Convention, in their efforts to overthrow his government, fully armed. He had already applied to a Governor of a Northern State for ten thousand arms, and backed by thirty thousand boys in blue, he had no fear of the result, unless the Federal Government sent down its troops, led by a copperhead General, if such could be found. He concluded by declaring that the hope of the South was in the elections of the North, and he conjured the citizens that if two radicals were before them as candidates, to vote for the one that was most radical.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 14.—A slight disturbance took place last eving in this City, caused by the arrest of two colored women. An attempt was made to rescue them by some colored soldiers. The police were soon reinforced, and were met by the negroes with a volley of brickbats and an invitation to "come on." The police, assisted by several Federal officers, succeeded in restoring quiet.

John Henderson, Jr., a member of the Convention of 1864, has died from the wounds received at 30th. of July riot.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 14.—The military officers are punishing severely the negro soldiers who participated in the riot on Wednesday last. Four are now hanging by their thumbs.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald states that he has reason to believe that Mr. Davis will be released in a few days on bail—that the President has desired that he should be brought to trial, but that, as it is understood in official circles his trial will not take place at the October term, his release may be looked for soon after, but not till after that time. It is also stated that Mr. Davis had been offered his release on condition of his leaving the country never to return, and that he indignantly rejected it on those terms.

The Houston Telegraph has good authority for stating that General Magruder will return to the United States shortly and become a good loyal citizen thereof.

Messrs. Eaton and Ferebee and the Western N. C. Railroad.

We clip from the Louisburg Eagle the following triumphant vindication of Messrs. Eaton and Ferebee from a recent attack on them by Mr. T. R. Caldwell, in connection with the Convention bill for the relief of the Western N. C. Railroad:

A friend has called our attention to a communication published some weeks ago in the Raleigh Standard by Mr. Todd R. Caldwell, of Burke, the tendency, if not the design, of which, is to create the impression that certain prominent gentlemen in the East are hostile to the interests of the West, and thereby to sow the seeds of bitterness and hatred between the two sections of the State. This is not only grossly unjust to the gentlemen alluded to, but it evidently proceeds from a feeling which every good man, whether Eastern or Western, should condemn.

The communication to which we allude refers particularly, in terms of severe censure, to the course pursued by Mr. Eaton and Col. Ferebee in the late Convention on the subject of the ordinance for the relief of the Western and North Carolina Railroad, but it reflects also on all who voted with them. We think the following extract from the Journal of the Convention, on the last day of its session, will furnish a perfect vindication of Mr. Eaton, and of those who acted with him:

"Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, moved to take up and put on its 2nd and 3rd readings "an Ordinance to authorize the President of the Western North Carolina Railroad to borrow money, on the credit of the State."

On this motion, Mr. Eaton demanded the yeas and nays, and the same being ordered, the motion was lost—yeas 22, nays 24, (not a quorum voting.)

In the negative, Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Bagley, Berry, Boyden, Buxton, Caldwell, of Guilford, Eaton, Faircloth, Ferebee, Gilliam, Jones, of Rowan, McKay, of Harnett, McGehee, Moore, of Wake, Norfleet, Perkins, Phillips, Polk, Rush, Smith, of Anson, Swann, Warren, Williams."

It was a rule of the Convention, as is well known, that no ordinance should be enacted unless a majority of its members should be present at the time of its passage, and inasmuch as the Convention consisted of one hundred and twenty members, sixty-one constituted a quorum to transact business. When a motion was made, on the last day of the session, and almost on the eve of its adjournment, to take up and put on its second and third readings the ordinance to authorize the President of the Western N. C. Railroad Company to borrow money on the credit of the State, Mr. Eaton objected to it on the ground that a quorum was not present, and in order to show whether a quorum was present or not, he called for the ayes and nays; they were ordered, and the result showed that he was correct. The vote stood 22 yeas, 24 nays—46 in all, considerably less than a quorum, which would have been 61. But there was not only not a quorum present when the motion was made, but members were every moment leaving, and in a very short time, and probably before the ordinance could have passed its second and third readings, there would not have been thirty members in the House. It would have been idle for the 46 members of the Convention, who were present when the motion was made, to take up and consider the ordinance, because if they had voted unanimously in favor of it, the President of the Convention would have been bound to declare the vote a nullity, no quorum voting, and it could not have been ratified.

This bitter attack upon Mr. Eaton has no other foundation, than that, in the discharge of his duty, he made a motion which prevented the illegal passage of an Ordinance by the Convention. Now we appeal to people of every shade of opinion and in every section of the State, and ask them if Mr. Eaton is to be censured because he was unwilling that a decided minority of the Convention should, in an illegal manner, involve the State in debt to the amount of $50,000, in clear and palpable violation of its own rules and of all parliamentary law? If the Convention, the whole number of which consisted of 120 members, could involve the State in debt, when only 46 were present, it might do so when only 6 were present. If a minority of the Convention could involve the State in debt and subject the people to the payment of taxes, a minority of the General Assembly could do the same, and will the people of North Carolina, or any considerable portion of them, in the East or in the West, be willing to this? Mr. Eaton deserves the thanks instead of the censure of the honest people of North Carolina, for his devoted attention to the business of the Convention, and for the vigilance with which he guarded against illegal legislation. He has the gratification to know that he was sustained in the course which he felt it his duty to pursue towards the Western N. C. Railroad, by a majority of the members present, including in that majority many of the purest and most eminent members of the Convention, of all shades of political opinion, such as Boyden, Buxton, Gilliam, Moore, Phillips and Warren, who voted with him. Mr. Boyden is a Western man, and a devoted friend of Internal Improvements; he was one of the ablest members of the Convention, and we believe that no one discharged his duty more faithfully. It would be too glaringly false to insinuate that he was hostile to Western interests. But why should Mr. T. R. Caldwell single out for denunciation Mr. Eaton, and the gallant Col. Ferebee, both alike distinguished for their high characters as patriots, as legislators, and as gentlemen? Why denounce them and not say a word about Messrs. Boyden, Buxton, Gilliam, Moore, Phillips, Warren and others who voted with him?

UNITED STATES COURTS IN GEORGIA.—The telegraph announced yesterday a significant fact—the holding of the First District Court of the United States, in Northern Georgia, since the war. The Bar passed resolutions pledging themselves to a hearty co-operation with the Federal officers, and promising a cordial welcome to Justice Wayne, of the Supreme Court of the United States. Yet the citizens who welcome the restoration of the authority of the Federal courts, and show every courtesy to their judges, are pronounced unfit to be represented in Congress, though they have every proof of adhesion to the Federal authority! All that we asked during the war, all that the Constitution demands, they now cheerfully comply with. It is Congress which nullifies the provisions of the Constitution. It is Congress which perpetuates a practical secession. It is Congress which denies the prayers of the people that they may be permitted to resume all their constitutional rights and duties.—National Intelligencer.

The Jackson (Mississippi) Clarion says that Joseph E. Davis, the venerable brother of the ex-Confederate President, has been pardoned by President Johnson.

General News.

Among the intinerants who are gadding about in the North as representatives of Southern Unionists are P. B. RANDOLPH, colored, of New Orleans, and J. J. STEWART, negro, of Baltimore. Both of these lesser lights shone forth on Wednesday evening, in Tremont Temple, Boston. They made their several speeches to the great edification, doubtless, of the audience assembled to do them honor. STEWART repeated, for the benefit of his auditors, that very stale and facetious remark that the South is entitled to no rights but funeral rites, and his co-laborer, who immediately followed him, amused the company by offering for sale for fifty cents what purported to be an overdue promissory note of President JOHNSON'S.

The Radicals of Mr. Beecher's congregation, in order to neutralize the influence of his late letters, gave the Southern Radicals a reception in Beecher's church. The "travelling menagerie," as the papers call them, marched in, and were greeted with wild applause. They were welcomed to the church "where the principles of abolitionism and the doctrine of Sharpe's Rifles were first sent forth into the city,"—so the orator said. Maynard was the first to reply; after which the big organ burst out into "John Brown," at which the audience grew frantic with excitement, and shouted in a vociferous manner the chorus, not forgetting the line, "we'll hang Jeff. Davis on a sour apple tree." Such scenes would be incredible, save that Satan has been loosed in this country.

The Philadelphia Press says, with exultation, that not one-tenth of the indignities which have been offered to President Johnson in his tour to the Northwest have been made known to the public. It is but little to the credit of the Republicans that this should be so, and a beautiful commentary on free speech. At Indianapolis, where the violence was greatest, and where lite was taken, the President had not opened his lips,—so that he could not be charged with provoking it.

COL. C. A. CILLEY.—We had a call from this gentleman this week. He informed us that he had entered into a law partnership with Col. G. N. Folk, late of the Confederate Army, and that he would settle at Lenoir, Caldwell county. Col. Cilley has been in the State ever since the surrender of the Southern armies, and understands the character of our people very well.—He is not afraid to settle among them. His experience has taught him that the charges so often made against our people, that Unionists and Northern men are unsafe here, are but the falsehoods of the mere demagogues. How different is the testimony of Col. Cilley, as borne by his act of settling permanently among us, to that of a certain Capt. Tourgee, who declared in the Radical Convention at Philadelphia, that no Federal soldier would be safe in the South until all the "rebels" were disfranchised and the negro enfranchised. Tourgee's language interpreted would be this: "Until these things are done, the few Northern emigrants and the few Radicals of the South cannot control the governments of the Southern States." Every Northern man who settles among us, and conducts himself as a quiet and peaceable citizen, is quite as safe as our own people, whatever may be his political opinions.—Old North State.

BURGLARY.—The store of Mr. L. Rosenthal, on Fayetteville Street, was robbed on Saturday night of about $475 in greenbacks, some silver, and a few articles of merchandize. The thief entered through the light over the door, the fastening of which was very insecure, during a brief absence of the clerk, Mr. Parish.

A freedman, by the name of Jno. Rhodes, was this morning arrested on suspicion of having committed the robbery. He disgorged $415 of the money, but avers that the amount was given him, for safe keeping, by a white man who robbed the store. This is an improbable story.—We understand that John was committed by the Mayor for trial at the next Court.

THE FAIR AT HENDERSON, which is to come off on the 17th., 18th. and 19th. prox., promises to be successful and attractive. It is unfortunate that one of the days should conflict with the general elections throughout the State, but the crowd in attendance on the other two will probably be large and imposing. We have been furnished with the list of premiums arraged for the Fair, which, considering the exigencies of the times, is in every respect liberal.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE.—The Trustees of this College met in Charlotte, on the 19th. inst.—The resignation of the President, Rev. Dr. Kilpatrick, was accepted. He goes to Lexington, Va., as a Professor in Washington College. The Board determined to reorganize the Faculty and to reinvigorate the institution. Prof. Richardson, of the University of Mississippi, was elected Professor of Latin and Greek, and Prof. J. M. Anderson Professor of Belles Lettres.

CARTERET COUNTY.—At a meeting of the friends of President Johnson's policy, held at Newport, Carteret Co., John M. Perry, Esq., was nominated as a candidate for the House of Commons. The choice of Senator for the district of Jones and Cartaret, belonging by arrangement to Jones County, the meeting suggested the name of T. J. Whitaker, of Jones, for Senator. These are excellent nominations. Mr. Perry is a young man of fine abilities and high character, and would make a capital representative.

"THE LAST NINETY DAYS OF THE WAR IN N. C."—We are greatly pleased to see that the Rev. Dr. Deems, of the Watchman, has resolved to embody these interesting and valuable papers in a volume at once. It will be brought out in a duodecimo volume, on good paper, and be handsomely and substantially bound in cloth. The price will be only $1,50, for which it will be sent pre paid by mail. The whole work is being carefully reviewed by the author, many passages will be re-written, and much new matter will be added. The Watchman says:

"The book will be interesting to our Northern readers. The absence of rancor and partisanship, and the plain telling of an unvarnished story, in a style of elevated simplicity and truthfulness, will commend it to all who desire to know the truth. Those who have read so much on the other side, should read what is valuable on the side of the South.

As the unhappy conflict of arms terminated within the limits of the State of North Carolina, and as this history gives the closing scenes, with sketches of society when those important actions were occurring, every family in North Carolina should have the book, should keep it in their library, and should make it a text-book for their children."

ANSON COUNTY.—We glean the following items from the last Wadesboro' Argus:

A bold attempt was made at the storehouse of Wm. J. Cox, at Lilesville, on Friday night last, to perpetrate a deed similar to that committed on young Cutchin, at Whitaker's Station, on the Wilmington and Weldon road, a few weeks ago.

An individual named John Patterson, of half Indian and white extraction, from Harnett county, born without arms, has been giving exhibitions in Wadesboro,' which are described as very entertaining. He does with his feet what others do with their hands, and can strop a razor and shave a man with as much skill as the most expert barber, and do a number of other things requiring great nicety and delicacy in handling.

About 8 o'clock, last Monday, the citizens of the town were startled by a very heavy and sharp report, as if from a rifled cannon of the heaviest calibre, fired at a distance of five or six miles from that point, followed by a rapid rumbling sound, which lasted nearly a minute, passing off towards the southwest, and seemingly causing the earth to tremble as if from a passing train of cars. The Argus says:

"At this point the report seemed to come from directly South of us. Citizens from the upper and Western portions of the County describe the sound as appearing the same to them as to us; but citizens from the Southern portion of the County, and over the South Carolina line, describe the first report as being directly overhead, as if from something bursting in the atmosphere, followed by rushing sounds as if from two bodies, one going directly West, and the other towards the Southwest. At the time the phenomenon occurred the atmosphere was slightly hazy. We are satisfied from all we can learn, that the reports or sounds above described proceeded from a falling aerolite, and anticipate hearing further from it."

TERRIBLE CONFLAGRATION IN NEWBERN.—We are deeply pained to learn that our sister city of Newbern was visited, on yesterday morning, about 1 o'clock, by a most terrible conflagration, by which a considerable portion of the city was destroyed. The calamity falls heavily upon the community, which was just beginning to recover from the effects of the war, and will excite general sympathy throughout the whole State.

We are indebted to an extra from the Times office, issued yesterday morning, at 4 o'clock, for the following particulars:

"A terrible fire broke out this morning at the furniture store of C. A. Nelson & Co., on Middle street, supposed to be the work of an incendiary, about 1 o'clock, and rapidly spread right and left, until both sides of the street, from Broad to Pollok, were in a light flame, and now lie in ashes. The vacant lot between Stevenson's corner and the brick building occupied now by Robbins & Co., checked the fire in that direction, but it swept down to Pollok, and turning Dissosway's old corner swept everything up Pollok street to the residence of Wm. G. Hall, Esq., which building is now being blown up, three heavy explosions having taken place since we commenced this writing, so that the entire block facing Middle and Pollok streets, from Stevenson's corner round to the Railroad, may be considered a complete loss, and all that portion of Middle street from the Episcopal Church square up to the old Court House corner.

Nothing but the most extraordinary efforts of the fire department saved the entire block on the South side of Pollok, between Middle and Hancock, which, had it caught, would have communicated to the block bounded by Middle and Craven and Pollok, and South Front, and thus swept out the entire business portion of the city. So that, to arrive at a just estimate of the services of the fire department on this occasion, it is only necessary to estimate the value of four entire squares of the business part of our city, for without it, no human effort could have staid the ravages of the devouring element until it had swept down to the water's edge. Our whole male population was on the street, and all did what they could. The tops of the houses, in the vicinity of the fire, were covered by citizens who by wetting blankets, extinguishing sparks, and extraordinary exertions in various ways, rendered incalculable services.

The fire was so sudden and spread so rapidly that Mr. Nelson and family, who resided on the second floor of his store, were compelled to jump from a second story window in order to save their lives, in doing which two female members were slightly injured. We heard of one other lady getting a limb broken by a similar process, but did not learn the name, and several persons were more or less injured by explosions and otherwise, but fortunately we have heard of no lives lost.

The losses by the fire, of course, cannot be estimated, but cannot fall short of one hundred and fifty or two hundred thousand dollars, and may be more. We could not ascertain, but our impression is that very few goods or other property were saved. By the extraordinary efforts of Capt. R. A. Shotwell, assisted by the corps of Gaston House waiters, saved nearly or quite all of the stock of Henry W. Jones & Co., on Middle street, but, as a general thing, we think nearly everything was consumed.

We suppose the losses in many instances were covered partially or wholly by insurance, but to what extent we have, as yet, no means of knowing."

Our Monday Morning Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15, 9 P. M.

Secretary Seward arrived here at two o'clock on a special train from Harrisburg. Since his arrival he has been gradually improving from his severe attack of something like cholera, and strong hopes are entertained of his entire recovery in a few days.

The President arrived here to-night, being delayed by the ovation which the people of Baltimore insisted on paying him. Tens of thousands flocked around him there, and would take no refusal. A vast concourse of persons awaited for hours the President's arrival at the Railroad depot here. He was escorted to the City Hall and subsequently to the White House, notwithstanding it was long after nightfall. The procession which marched up the avenue, was very large, consisting of Military, Marine Corps, Mayor and Common Council, Firemen, Departmental and civil bodies. The demonstration was very imposing, and the President was greeted with great cheering by the thousands that thronged Pennsylvania Avenue.

George Ashmun, Esq., Chairman of the Convention that nominated Mr. Lincoln in 1860, has been tendered the position of Collector of the Customs for the port of Boston, Mass., vice Hannibal Hamlin resigned.

Gen. Swayne telegraphed from Alabama that the report of the sale of negroes in Clark county, in that State, is untrue.

From Canada.—Affairs in New York—From Mexico.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15, P. M.

The Herald's Canada correspondence says there is no abatement in the excitement concerning the Fenians. It is also said that the Canadians are organizing in squads to make raids upon the American border towns, in revenge for the Fenian raids upon Canada.

The World makes the exciting announcement, that four regiments of negroes are being organized in New York city, and African loyal Leagues are organized and armed in every ward. The soldiers are being instructed in drill, &c., by Colonel Hawkins. The World asks, are we to have a taste of San Domingo!

The New York Herald's city of Mexico correspondence of the first inst. says the crisis of the Empire has evidently arrived, judging from the tone of the French and Mexican Imperial press, and the combined movement of the Liberals for an attack upon the very seat of Maximilian's power. The Imperialists themselves now look imploringly to the United States to take charge of the destinies of the nation. Grayamas Mazatlan and San Louis Potosi are reported evacuated by the French. Marshal Bazine is reported to be in the city of Mexico.

The Ristori excitement has reached a high point. Sales of tickets commenced this morning and speculators are already getting fifteen or twenty dollars premium on tickets.

War Threatened—The Peace of Europe not Settled.

Cable Dispatches.

The Tribune has the following dispatches:

VIENNA, Sept. 13.

We are on the verge of another war, which threatens to equal in extent that just ended. Austria shows bad faith with Italy, and makes unreasonable demands, which Italy will not submit to. Austria has overcharged the debt of Venetia and withholds the Venetian property which she was to have transferred.

BERLIN, Sept. 14.

Prussia emphatically notifies Austria she will not suffer Italy, her ally, to be insulted and defrauded, and if Austria persists in her present course, war must follow.

PRAGUE, Sept. 14.

The homeward march of the Prussian troops has been peremptorily arrested and the demoralization of the army stopped.

DRESDEN, Sept. 14.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
113 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Book-keeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Colleges Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. S. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va., Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON,
